The Democratic joy will soon be turned into disappointment and disgust.

If the Chicago Convention will give the Republican party half a chance, it will play havoc with Democratic expectations.

Mr. Tilden is saying but little, but his barrel, which is a silent but powerful influence, is doing much to tighten the twist on the Democratic party.

The Democrats seemed inclined to chuckle over the action of the Springfield Convention. The National Convention will soon take that chuckle out of the Democratic party.

If ever there was a time when the Republicans should show wisdom and practice common sense, that time is now.
Every eye in the Nation will be turned toward the National Republican Convention. Upon the deliberations of that body will hang the destiny of the party. If it make a wise nomination, the party will be strengthened and will ride on to victory. If it make an unwise nomination—placing upon the ticket a man against whom there is a deep-seated bitterness—the party will be shorn of a good deal of its strength, and its defeat will be endangered. No clique of men should be commissioned to dictate to the four millions and three hundred thousand Republicans whom they must accept as a candidate.
The action of the Convention and the men who will be ruling spirits in it, should be of such a character as will challenge profound respect, and give the party an enthusiasm and a strength that will lead to a triumphant vindication of Republican principles.

The debates in the Methodist General Conference revealed the fact that about all the church publications have been loss financially, to the church. During the past four years the National Repository, formerly the Ladies' Repository, has lost $30,000 under the editorial management of Dr. Curry. The Southern Advocate has lost $16,000; the Pacific Coast Advocate, $13,000; the St. Louis Advocate, $9,000, and the Golden Hours has lost several thousand dollars. The grand aggregate of losses is $91,000. The profits of other publications such as books; by the Book Concern, have been able to meet the deficiency and $20,000 to spare. The leading laymen in the General Conference, who have an eye to business, and quite a number of ministers, are in favor of abandoning all the publications which are published at a loss, but a majority of the ministerial delegates think the publication should be continued notwithstanding the loss, and argue that the true object of the church is not to make money, but to advance the interest of the church.

A bill has passed the United States Senate giving John B. Bachelder $50,000 for making a survey of the battle-field at Gettysburg. The maps will be accompanied by a careful history of that memorable engagement, and the progress of the battle will be illustrated by diagrams made by Mr. Bachelder. He has devoted most of his time for the past seventeen years to the study of this historic battle, and as a matter of course the result of his labors is very interesting. Mr. Bachelder visited the battle-field before the dead were buried, and spent eighty-four days in making plans and gathering information concerning the engagement from those who had been actors in it. At the close of the war over one thousand officers, forty-nine of them generals, visited the field at Mr. Bachelder's invitation, and materially aided him in his work by their recollections and reminiscences.
Among the maps will be those representing six phases of the battle, which will be of remarkable interest. Mr. Bachelder has earned his $50,000 by his indefatigable labor, and it is gratifying that Congress appreciates the importance of his work.

THE LATEST SPECULATIONS.

The strong Grant papers still count that he will have a majority on the first ballot in this they express a good deal of confidence, and it their "figuring" be true, General Grant will be the Republican candidate. The New York Times, which is a little more judicious than the latter Ocean, and not so wild in its calculations as Don Cameron, gives Grant 37 on the first ballot, instead of 410, which is 8 more than a majority of the 750 votes in the Convention. On the first ballot, the New York Tribune gives Grant 290, Blaine 277, Sherman 106, Edmunds 36 and Washburne 13. The Blaine club given him 323 on the first ballot, and Grant 262. The Secretary of the National Blaine club, makes this estimate, and further speculates that if an attempt is made to enforce the unit rule in Pennsylvania, that the entire vote of the State, 53, will be given Mr. Blaine. Another Grant estimate gives him 335 votes on the first ballot, and Blaine only 169.

There have been ten States which have instructed for Grant—Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, and Virginia—making 290 votes.

Eight States have instructed their delegates for Blaine—California, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, and West Virginia—making 101 votes.

Fourteen States gave no instructions—Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Massachusetts, Mississippi, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio (the vote will be given to Sherman), Rhode Island, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Dakota, District of Columbia, and Wyoming.

These are the latest speculations and are given for what they are worth. No one can forecast the result of the Chicago Convention. There is so much bitterness existing between the Grant and the Blaine factions, that both of them may be defeated. It would be the salvation of the party, and a good thing for the country, if the nomination could fall on such a man as Washburne or Edmunds. This would create a spirit of harmony in the party, and give it that degree of confidence which would result in a substantial Republican victory.

TO BE SETTLED.

Grave Questions to be Settled by the Chicago Convention.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—One of the prominent officers of the last Republican Convention said to-day that the question as to which method of electing district delegates to Chicago was in accordance with the call of the National Committee would be forced on the Convention with great vigor by men who intended to have it settled.
He also said that all intimations received by the National Committee were of a character which rendered it almost certain that the coming Convention would be by far the stormiest in the history of the Republican party. There is a combination of anti Grant men partly formed for the purpose of controlling the organization.
The Grant men are fearing the result of this step, and are working hard to neutralize it. Senator George F. Hoar is being prominently mentioned for the position of President of the Convention. The suggestion of his name comes from Western men primarily.

The programme and expectation of the Blaine men with regard to the organization of the Chicago Convention is radically different from the theories of the Grant men as telegraphed East from the Grant organs in Chicago. The Blaine men claim that the Grant men go into the Convention under most serious disadvantages. To begin with, whatever Warner M. Bateman may have said at Chicago (and, according to reports from there, he has said that which he was not understood to have been authorized to say), the Blaine and Sherman forces will be in effect, if not by agreement, united in opposition to Grant, so far as the organization of the Convention goes.
Their bond of union is opposition to a third term. To them there must be allied the Washington, Edmunds, and Washburne forces unless they choose to surrender without making a fight. This combination, it is confidently expected here, will control the organization of the Convention. It is believed here that the anti-Grant opposition will control the Convention from the time that Don Cameron calls it to order until the nomination is made. The Temporary Chairman, it is understood, will be selected by the National Committee or Executive Committee of that Committee, and not by Don Cameron, and that the Chairman will not be a Grant man. At the time Don Cameron was chosen Chairman to succeed Zach Chandler, the united Grant and Sherman votes of which he was elected were a majority of but one over the Blaine votes. If, therefore, the Blaine and Sherman men on that Committee shall unite against Grant, the latter will have no influence with it. Any attempt on the part of Cameron to appoint a Temporary Chairman will be resisted. The Committees on Credentials, Rules, Organizations, etc., are to be selected by the State delegates, each State appointing one, and even the Grant people will have to admit that to count by States the anti-Grant opposition has a majority of two or three to one over the third term. According to the figures here, the anti-Grant people will control the votes of thirty-one States and Territories, while the third term will have but ten States, the other six being divided between the other candidates.
In discussions of the unit rule at Chicago Don Cameron will undoubtedly be reminded that in 1868 he refused to be bound by the Pennsylvania instructions to vote for Curtis, and did not vote for him. Edward McPherson, it is said, is to be entrusted with preparing the platform for the Chicago Convention.

THE SUPERVISORS' BILL.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The Senate spent most of the day on the Supervisors bill, and the prospect of adjournment was that the debate might run on quite a while yet.
The discussion ran all over the field of politics, and was lively in spots.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

The Meeting Postponed till Monday Night—The Complexion of the Committee on the Presidential Question.

CHICAGO, May 25.—The meeting of the National Committee which was called on Thursday, the 27th inst, has been postponed until Monday, the 31st, because several of the members were unable to be present on the earlier date.

The most important business to come before that committee will be the selection of a chairman to preside over the convention until the permanent officers are selected. It has always been the custom for the National Committee to select the temporary chairman. At the convention of 1876, ex-Governor Morgan, of New York, Chairman of the National Committee, called the body to order, and, after making a speech, said:

"I am requested by the National Committee to make the nomination of the temporary presiding officer of the convention, and therefore name the Hon. Theodore M. Pomeroy, of New York, for that office."

Furthermore, it has always been the custom for the convention to elect the man selected by the National Committee. In this instance there may be two nominations from the National Committee.

The Blaine men claim a majority of that committee. They claim the following members as favorable to the nomination of Senator Blaine:

Harrington, of Delaware; Root, of Illinois; Stone, of Iowa; Martin, of Kansas; Frye, of Maine; Follow, of Maryland; Heath, of Michigan; Averill, of Minnesota; Osborn, of Nebraska; Chandler, of New Hampshire; Halsey, of New Jersey; Scott, of Oregon; Mason, of West Virginia; Enos of Wisconsin; McCormick, of Arizona; Edmunds, of Dakota; Bowen, of the District of Columbia; Donaldson, of Idaho; Beattie, of Montana; Atkins, of New Mexico; McBride, of Utah; Jacobs, of Washington, and Carey, of Wyoming—23 in all.

The following members favor the nomination of General Grant:

Clayton, of Arkansas; Gorham, of California; Ebert, of Colorado; Purman, of Florida; New, of Indiana; Goodloe, of Kentucky; Pinchback, of Louisiana; Forbes, of Mississippi; Tiley, of Missouri; Jones, of Nebraska; Platt, of New York; Keogh, of North Carolina; Cameron, of Pennsylvania; Aldrich, of Rhode Island; Patterson, of South Carolina; Hale, of Tennessee; Davis, of Texas; Sener, of Virginia—19 in all.

DAVID DAVIS.

Belief in Washington that he Will Run As An Independent Candidate.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 25.—The Democratic politicians continue to talk about Senator David Davis' letter, and the opinion is almost universal that it is a direct bid for the Democratic nomination. The friends of Davis say the leading Nationalists have asked him whether he will take their nomination, but he declined to commit himself, saying he would wait and see what the two regular conventions would do. It is believed here among his friends that Davis will run as an independent candidate, if there is a possibility that he can carry two or three States, and throw the election in the House and thus defeat the Republican nominee.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Proceedings of the General Assembly at Madison.

MADISON, May 25.—The Rev. Alvin Goodale, of Iowa, led the denominational exercises at the opening of the Presbyterian General Assembly this morning.

The Judicial Committee, through its Chairman, the Rev. Dr. L. H. Atwater, of Princeton, N. J., reported certain cases submitted to it: First, concerning certain actions of the Synod of Illinois South in considering an appeal from the Alton Presbytery, dismissed. Second and third, the appeals of certain persons from the action of the Iowa Presbytery North, in its verdict on their appeal from the Dubuque Presbytery, continued to next assembly. Case fourth, an appeal from the synod of New Jersey; a layman of the Monmouth Presbytery convicted of the crime of rape; the presbytery reversed the decision of the synod and cleared the accused; the synod appealed therefrom to the General Assembly; recommended that complaint be dismissed.
A sharp debate arose, and a special order coming up the fourth case went over.

The home missions being the special order, Dr. E. P. Humphrey, of Louisville, Kentucky, Chairman, presented the report already published. Among the recommendations of the committee is one that, as the health of the Rev. Mr. Dixon has become greatly impaired, they recommend that he be granted a leave of absence with continuance of salary.

Dr. Cyrus D. N. then spoke at some length explaining the operations of the board.

The Rev. M. Darley, of Colorado, gave a graphic description of the Mexicans of Colorado and New Mexico, and their wants.

The Rev. Mr. Conn, of St. Paul, spoke at some length in favor of the necessities of newly arriving emigrants.

The report was then adopted. The Committee on Revision of the Book of Discipline was read by the Chairman and adopted.

A motion was adopted to furnish all ministers and sessions copies of the revised Book of Discipline.

The unfinished report of the Judiciary Committee came up, being case No. 4, which caused a lively discussion, and the case went over on adjournment.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Young is announced to speak on Mormonism on Friday evening of this week, at the woman's home missionary meeting.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

CINCINNATI, May 25.—General Steedman, delegate-at-large from Ohio to the Democratic Convention, has just returned from New York. In an interview he says: "I found Mr. Tilden looking very feeble, indeed," and added, "I do not think he will come before the Cincinnati Convention as a candidate. I have positive assurances from his friends that a letter expressing his wish to withdraw his name as a candidate will be presented to the Convention." INDIANAPOLIS, May 25.—The Hon. John Lee, a prominent railroad man and politician, who was in New York a few days ago, says he found Tilden still a very active man, his mind as clear and vigorous as ever, and the recent paralysis hardly noticeable.

PLUCK.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 25.—In East Greenwich, this forenoon, a tramp entered the farm house of O. T. Hopkins, and when Mrs. Hopkins returned, after a brief absence, she found him gathering up the spoons and other silver. He turned upon her, threw her down, pounded her shockingly and stripped off her clothing when she told him he could have the money which was in the house if he would let her up. Eager for money, he released his hold, when she seized a loaded gun. The tramp tried to wrest it from her, but, unable to do so, he sprang from a window, when Mrs. Hopkins fired.
He gave a scream and fled to the woods, where search is now being made for him.
A doctor was summoned for the brave woman. She is dangerously hurt.

KANSAS DEMOCRACY.

TOPEKA, May 25.—Three hundred and twenty-five delegates to the Democratic Convention which meets to-morrow are already here. No definite estimate of their preference can be given on the Presidential question, each of the principal candidates having an apparently strong following. A delegation of prominent Democrats is here from Indianapolis in the interest of Hendricks. The Tilden faction will make a strong effort to send the delegation to Cincinnati instructed. The Convention will, in all probability, pass a resolution in opposition to the two-thirds rule, which is conceded to be a straw for Hendricks.

"Gath" in the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Except to Saratoga and to Washington he seldom passed beyond the boundary of the State of which when he was in it he was nearly absolute. If he had taken his motto at the outset from the Earl of Stratford, "Thorough" he could not have fulfilled it better. As an advocate, politician, Senator, Chief Justice and statesman, he was one of the most correct and thorough men of the country. His nature was sluggish and his ambition easily satisfied, but his sense of duty and his habit of work were ruled both, and he could be equally patient and powerful. Such minute perceptions have not been seen in this country united with such weight, and behind the bars of impeachment show, all his majesty made come by the disproportionate surroundings.

Soon after he entered the bar, a Philadelphian gave him a civil case, which he won with a display of his compact yet diverting argument, and at sunset retiring to his little bar office, the client counted out $500 in gold. The young lawyers immediate thought of his mother, then a widow at Milford. It was twenty miles away, but he was buoyant of body and spirits, and he set out at once to walk that distant alone.

The nights after that country have the clearness of starlight and the beauty of sunset, which seem to be peculiar to regions of sandy coast and shore. Cedars line the road, with woodlands of locust and walnut, and in the rolling fields the great Spanish oak, bare of leaves, held on its battered branch the fish-lark's only nest.
The perennials still bear up their abundant tomato-like fruit. It was October, for unwearied negroes arose in the distance, and the muskrat and the mink slipped to the ditches as he approached them. His head was full of happiness and lore. As good a Horatian scholar as anybody in his walk, he had texts of Tacitus, and here of Juvenal to remember. Old chapels behind graveyard walls blinked at him through their windows. He reached Milford at 11 o'clock, and stole to his mother's door, carefully locked by night to this day in that country, to surprise her.
The poor old lady was sitting by the chimney logs alone and bereaved. The hard times had overtaken all her family. Clayton poured the gold over her shoulder into her lap. She looked up and saw her son.
"Johnny," she cried, "did you come by it honest?"

"Yes, mother; I earned it for a fee today, and I walked down to bring it to you and gladden your dear old heart."

"The circus is coming," remarked Mrs.
Goodington, laying down her paper, "with no end of trained horses and caramelized hyphenates, and other bedizens of the forest and jungle. How well I remember the first time Daniel took me to the circus!
As we entered the tainted inclosure I said to him, 'How terribly the wild animals growl, don't they?' I was enameled frightened to death till Daniel told me it was only the vendors of peanuts and prize pawling their rogation."—Boston

The venerable Mrs. Sylvanus Cobb, the widow of the well known Universalist clergyman, and the mother of the writer has just died in Boston. She was a woman of great energy and determination. When, many years ago, her husband was a member of the Massachusetts legislature, a number of Mrs. Cobb's denominational friends visited her to ask her to recede from his position of obstructing a bill to prohibit extra-judicial oaths. The stout-hearted young matron said that she gloried in her husband's position. To the suggestion that her children's bread and butter might depend upon her action, she replied rather than ask her husband to change his course she would take her children to the woods and feed them on nuts and acorns.
No further effort was made in that direction.

Rich and Draper's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company are making arrangements to-day to show at the Opera house next Wednesday evening.

John Needham, of Magnolia, has twenty teams and twenty-five men hauling manure onto his tobacco ground. It looks business like.

A report reaches the city that Mr. Decker's house on the Madison road was blown down by the storm to-day, but it lacks confirmation.

The Governor and party arrived this afternoon, and the reception at the Institution for the Blind this evening will be held as announced.

The ladies of the Congregational church will be prepared to refresh their friends with strawberries and ice cream at Cannon's hall to-night.

Lucy Washington was yesterday afternoon granted her desire to be freed from the matrimonial bonds which had tied her to Cornelius Washington. The Circuit Court did it.

Richard O'Donnell has been appointed by the County Board special pound master for the Court House square. The fences are to be taken away, and woe to the cow that tries to pasture there.

Governor Smith has issued commissions to Lieutenant Colonel Wm. B. Britton, and Major H. H. McLeenan, of Beloit, as officers of the First Battalion of the Wisconsin National Guard.

The rendition of Damon and Pythias at the Opera house last evening, by Homer D. Cope, was a splendid affair, and reflected the greatest credit upon that gentleman.—Engle, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

The Myers house dry house took a tumble to-day in front of Ford's Clothing store. He speedily got over his sickness though, got up as nothing had happened, and went over the bridge at a 2 hour and 15 minute gait.

The Knights of Pythias will now probably come out on Decoration day. They are to meet to-morrow evening to definitely determine the matter, and to make necessary arrangements, but the chances seem all in favor of their joining in the procession.

The Northwestern company will sell excursion tickets to Chicago and return to those desiring to attend Haverley's big concert Saturday night. The tickets are good to return on Monday, and the price will probably be sixty per cent of the usual fare, and the price of a ticket to the concert added.

The custom of decorating the soldiers' graves will be observed in Beloit, under the auspices of the Beloit Veteran Club, next Sunday afternoon. The militia companies of Janesville, the surviving soldiers of the late war, individually and in clubs, and the public in general are cordially invited by the Committee to join in the occasion.

The examination of William Clark, charged with going through Frank Dudley's pockets, while the latter lay drunk in an alley, took place before Justice Nolan yesterday, District Attorney Sale prosecuting and Attorney Hendrix defending. Clark was held to the Circuit Court for trial in the sum of $300, and being unable to furnish bail was committed to jail.

L. A. Drury came to Chicago yesterday, from Beloit, Wis., to attend the convention. He decided to recreate a little first, and called on two young women at No. 463 South State street. When he came away he found himself short to the tune of $375. He reported his loss at the Harrison street station, and the result was the arrest of Jennie Martin and Kitten McDonald. The money is yet to be recovered.—Chicago Times.

Mrs. George Strout leaves to-morrow morning for Kansas City, which is to be her home now, her husband being already there. Mrs. Strout's many friends here will miss her greatly, and their best wishes will follow her. She intends to open a studio in Kansas City, and will doubtless find her artistic skill in demand there, as elsewhere. She is highly gifted by nature, and has cultured and developed this natural skill by instruction received from the best artists in the East, and the pieces from her easel show the touch of the true artist. For some time she has had a studio in Chicago, and her pictures, and especially her portraits, have been eagerly sought for. She has ambition and ability, and cannot but continue to win success. Her work speaks its own praise, and cannot but command attention wherever seen.

FUN AHEAD.

Florence Herbert and her company are to occupy the Opera House three evenings commencing to-morrow night. When in this city a short time ago they won a firm hold on the public by popular prices and popular plays, and the theater-goers will need little urging to crowd the house again. They are an excellent company, well balanced, clean-cut, and that they will give pleasing entertainments there is no sort of doubt.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

Next Wednesday night at the Opera house Rich and Draper's company will give "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This play, though old, seems not to wear out, and those who have seen it many times find fresh beauty in it, and seem fully as enthusiastic over it as when they first witnessed it. The prices of tickets are clear down, being only twenty-five and thirty-five cents, with no extra charge for reserved seats.

DECORATION DAY.

How it is to be Observed—The Order of the Procession.

Next Monday there will be a suspension of business, and the custom of decorating the graves of the departed soldiers will be observed in a more general manner than in any preceding year. Elaborate preparations are being made for the day, and the citizens from all parts of the county are expected to join. At the exercises in the cemetery Dr. H. P. Strong, of Beloit, will serve as President. Prof. S. S. Rockwood, of Whitewater, will be the orator of the day, and Rev. T. P. Sawin, of this city, will serve as chaplain. The procession last year was one of the largest ever seen in this State on such an occasion, but this year it promises to be even larger than then, and the presence of four military companies, the Knights of Pythias, the Fire Department, two bands, and various civil societies will make the parade a very attractive one.

The following is the order in which the procession will be formed:

- 1—Marshals and Aids.
- 2—Bower City Band.
- 3—First Battalion Wisconsin National Guard, composed of the following companies, and under command of Lieutenant Colonel W. B. Britton:
 - Beloit City Guard.
 - Custer Ridge, Whitewater.
 - Bower City Guards.
 - Janesville Guards.
 - T. A. & B. Band.
 - Fire Department.
 - Civic Societies.
 - Knights of Pythias, mounted.
 - President, orator and chaplain of the day in carriages.
 - Clergy in carriages.
 - Disabled soldiers and sailors in carriages.
 - Decorating committee in carriages.
 - Citizens in carriages.

FATALLY KICKED.

A Young Man at the Rock River House Has His Head frightfully Crushed by a Horse.

At an early hour this morning a young man named C. A. Lyon, received probably fatal injuries by being kicked by a stallion belonging to Wm. Paul, of Milton. Young Lyon was in the stable at the Rock River house cleaning the horse, and in moving about him, the horse tried to bite him. Lyon spoke to him, and at the same time gave him a light tap with a little stick, which he had in his hand. At this the horse kicked him, striking him on the head and inflicting a terrible wound. Dr. Palmer was sent for in haste and on his arrival he found that the upper jaw had been broken into fragments, and the front portion of the skull badly fractured, and the right eye destroyed. His injuries are of such a nature that he has little chance of living. He became unconscious immediately after the accident, and remains in that condition. Young Lyon is a son of William Lyon, of Otter Creek, and is an unmarried man.

THE STORM.

This forenoon about 11 o'clock, a storm broke on the city, passing mainly on the north. There was a gust of water and a gust of wind, which threatened all sorts of trouble for a half hour or so. There was lightning, thunder, wind, and hail all in one medley and each trying to do its worst. The wind tossed things about pretty lively for a time, and did some damage especially to foliage. The trees in the First ward especially suffered. A noble maple by the corner of J. T. Wright's residence was broken down; another in front of E. D. Tallman's, and one by Attorney Sale's house. An oak near Mr. Cummings' place was half destroyed; another tree by the Stevens house was blown over, and thus the wind created havoc here and there, but no reports of any very serious damage have come in, though in the country the storm must have had a clean sweep.

A large bill board on Academy street near the depot blew over and the flying boards came very near killing some ladies who, with a gentleman, were riding along in a top buggy. The whole top of the buggy was torn off, the travellers thrown out, the horse frightened into a run, and general havoc caused.

REV. MR. STOWE PROMOTED.

At yesterday's session of the General Conference of the Methodist Church at Cincinnati, Rev. Wm. P. Stowe, of this city was elected to a prominent and important position, it being that of one of the book agents. Messrs. Phillips and Hunt were elected book agents in charge of the New York book concern by an almost unanimous vote, but when it came to the election of agents for the Cincinnati book concern, there was more of a struggle. The old agents, Messrs. Hitchcock and Walden, were among the candidates. The first ballot elected J. M. Walden, he receiving 239 votes, but for the other agent there was no choice, the vote standing: Hitchcock 107; Stowe 85; Doughty 59. The second ballot stood: Hitchcock 103; Stowe 105; Doughty 82. Third ballot: Stowe 139; Hitchcock 96; Doughty 77. No choice. The fourth ballot stood: Stowe 234; Hitchcock 59; Doughty 41, and Mr. Stowe was declared elected.

The term of office is for four years, and the salary is $2,000. Mr. Walden will make his headquarters in Cincinnati, and Mr. Stowe in Chicago. This will necessitate the removal of Mr. Stowe and family from this city, and will retire him for a season from the itinerancy. He is a man of rare good business qualifications, and will doubtless fill well the position to which he has been elected. While serving as Presiding Elder of this district he has been a member of the General Book Committee, and in his duties on this committee has gained more or less of a knowledge of the affairs of the book concerns, and this experience added to his natural qualifications, render him a good man for the place. His friends will rejoice on learning of the honor thus bestowed upon him.

FOR MRS. C. W. B.

"A Far Off Light That Never Was On Land or Sea."

As through this world I toil along, Too frail my burdens well to bear, Alive to melody and song, Alive to every mortal care,
A joyous hope above this world There dwains to me;
"A far off light that never was
On land or sea."

"This light that drives the clouds away,
"This light that scatters all my fear,
"This light that brightens every day,
"This light that brings the heavens near,
O, brighter than the brightest earth, There comes to me,
"A far off light that never was
On land or sea."

My midday shadow now is lost,
And, as my sun of life declines, Should it not lengthen to the frost Of greater age in coming times, I more than live within that light That shines for me—
"A far off light that never was
On land or sea."

COUNTY CONCERNS.

Further Delays of the Supervisors—The Court House Fence to be Torn Down, and the Cows to be Shut Up—Appointment of Standing Committees.

The County Board continued their business to-day and closed their session about noon.

Among the items of interest gleaned from their minutes is the fact that they appropriated $500 to pay for the repairs done to the buildings on the County Farm by the late cyclone.

The Committee on Public Buildings was instructed to tear down the fence surrounding the Court House square, and sell the lumber at auction, and the janitor was authorized to impound all animals found running at large there.

The Committee appointed to examine into the advisability of putting telephones into the Court House and jail reported this morning. Messrs. Brownell and Jones presented a majority report in favor of putting the telephones in at cost not to exceed $60. Mr. Jones presented a minority report against it. The majority report was adopted by a vote of 17 to 7.

A resolution fixing the board of prisoners in the jail at $9.50 a week was voted down.

Messrs. Metcalf, Howard, Gardner, Greenman, and Jones were appointed a committee to confer with some competent person in reference to making a tract index of the real estate of Rock county, and to enter into an agreement with such person on the best terms the committee can procure, the agreement to be subject to the approval of the Board at its next meeting.

The following are the standing committees for this year appointed by the Chairman:

- Tax Certificates and Illegal Taxes—J. C. Metcalf, William Gunn, F. E. Rice.
- District Attorney's Report—M. V. Pratt, J. C. Brownell, J. W. Jones.
- Charters and Incorporations—S. T. Merrill, Silas Ward, R. J. Greenman.
- Finance—Wm. Gardner, John Haight, W. James.
- Change of Names of Persons, Towns and Villages—Halver Clopphus, George Cox, Charles H. Nye.
- Paupers, Towns and Villages—George Howard, John Dowe, George Sherman.
- Public Buildings—S. H. Slaymaker, Peter Aller, Ed. Rotherham.
- Apportioning Juries—Seth Fisher, K. B. Thom, W. H. Pease.
- Accounts of Receiving and Disbursing Officers—L. B. Carlo, William Gardner, C. C. Keeler.
- Claims—W. J. McIntyre, B. E. Eldridge, R. B. Harper.
- Equalization—L. B. Carlo, S. T. Merrill, George Howard, Silas Ward, Wm. Gunn, S. H. Slaymaker, John Dowe.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 83 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 73 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 78 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 74 degrees above. Thunder showers.

The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, nearly stationary barometer and temperature, southerly winds, partly cloudy weather, and local rains.

A LIVELY ENTERPRISE.

The Baker Manufacturing Company, at Evansville, is one of the liveliest enterprises in this country. It is astounding how the business has grown and prospered. We were through the shops the other day and found them humming lively. They have to, to keep up with the rush of trade. The wind mill which this company manufactures, has so many advantages that it needs little talk to sell them. They can be run by a zephyr or by a cyclone, with equal safety, as they regulate themselves and take care of themselves. The rotary power, made by the same company, can be attached to these mills and thus make them as available as steam power for grinding, or cutting feed, shelling corn, turning grindstones, and running all kinds of light machinery. A farmer cannot invest money in any more successful labor saving machinery than this. In this city, Edward Carl is the agent, and those looking for a good thing in this line ought to see this power and windmill.

Many clergymen who were obliged to withdraw from the pulpit on account of "Clergyman's Sore Throat," have recovered by using Fellows' Syrup Hypophosphites and are preaching again. This preparation seems peculiarly and wonderfully adapted to diseases of the breathing organs.

You Never Heard a Dentist say that SUZODONT was not a good article to preserve the teeth and gums. This fact is not to be controverted. What gives it such prominence as a curative wash? It is compounded, after years of scientific plodding, of materials calculated to harden the gums, remove the septic acid, and avoid putrefaction.

AND GREAT CLOSING OUT SALE OF $75,000 WORTH OF DRY GOODS, MILLINERY & CARPETS.

McKey & Bro.

Having leased for a term of years the building now being erected by A. P. Bennett, Esq., on the corner of Milwaukee & River streets in this city, WILL COMMENCE IMMEDIATELY the greatest closing out sale ever known in the mercantile annals of Wisconsin.

Description of McKey & Bro.'s New Store.

The block will be 44 feet in front by 130 feet in depth, three stories high with a basement. It is to be built of Milwaukee pressed brick with Joliet cut sand stone trimmings, and when finished it will be the handsomest building in the city. McKEY & BRO. will occupy the whole of the first story and basement. The front will be finished in black and gold, with French plate glass windows. A series of circular windows over the shelving on the River street side will furnish a uniform volume of light for the whole store. The counters and shelving are to be made after the most approved modern designs. The front of the store, 100x42, is to be used for the display of Dry Goods and Millinery, while the Carpet department will occupy the rear part, 30x42, raised three steps above the front level. The basement with a high ceiling and admirably lighted by numerous windows in front and rear, and along the River street side will be utilized for storage and wholesale purposes. The office will be in the southwest corner, and is to be provided with a fire proof vault and appropriate furniture. This will be, when completed, the most elegant mercantile establishment in the State, and having been built expressly for a first class Dry Goods Store, without regard to expense, it will be absolutely perfect in all its appointments.

TO THE PEOPLE!

Having concluded to open their new store with an entirely fresh stock of goods, McKey & Bro. have determined to CLOSE OUT in the meantime every dollar's worth of DRY GOODS, MILLINERY and CARPETS now on hand.

This sale is absolutely peremptory and will involve the GREATEST SACRIFICE of goods ever known in the West. McKey & Bro. fully realize the necessity of cutting down prices in order to effect so large a sale in so short a time. They will, therefore, contemporaneously with the publication of this announcement make a general and comprehensive reduction in prices in every department of the house.

Every person in Rock county needing supplies of Dry Goods, Millinery or Carpets is invited to participate in the benefits of this great sale. No such opportunity is likely to occur again in the LIFE TIME of any one now living. This is no humbug gotten up for diversion or to deceive the people, but is on the contrary a BONA FIDE sale, made imperative by the circumstances already narrated. Every Mechanic, Artisan, Farmer and everybody engaged in business or professional pursuits can and ought to save money by buying their goods of McKey & Bro. during the next 60 days. The store now occupied by McKey & Bro., being Nos. 24 and 26 Main street, is to rent from and after September 1, 1880. McKEY & BRO., 24 and 26 Main Street, Janesville, Wis. Sign of the Golden Sheep.
